Charlotte County APVA Scholarship Seeks Applicants

CHARLOTTE COURT HOUSE, VA – The Charlotte County APVA (Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities) was formed more than 90 years ago to preserve the rich history and heritage of Charlotte County for future generations. Since 2006, the Charlotte County APVA has offered one-time, non-renewable scholarship up to $500 to either a high school senior or to a student enrolled full time in college. The Board of Directors has again selected to offer this scholarship for 2022.

To be considered for this 2022 scholarship the applicant must meet the following criteria:

- High school senior planning to attend college in the fall of 2022, or a currently enrolled student in a college/university.
- Charlotte County resident.
- Minimum 3.0 grade point average.
- Submit an application.
- Submit a typed one-page essay describing the applicant's interest in history/preservation or related field's along with college and career plans.
- Willingness to be interviewed by the Scholarship Committee.

Applications are available from the guidance offices at Randolph-Henry High School, Fuqua School, or via the Charlotte County APVA's website, www.charlottecountyapva.org. Completed applications should be mailed to Charlotte County Branch Preservation Virginia Scholarship Committee, P.O. Box 188, Keysville, VA 23947 and received by Friday, April 29, 2022.
